RED RIVER TRIP

The annual Red River trip took place on the 3rd and 4th of October. Although the attendance was less than usual, those who went had a fabulous time. The weather was perfect, the fall colors were fantastic, and some extra events added to the enjoyment. On the way up, Eli Maestas led a tour of Chimayo, where his family is from. His grandparents' home is a museum, and the group learned a lot about the culture and history of this fascinating place. Thanks, Eli! On Saturday's drive to the raspberry ranch at La Cueva, Doug Bird had arranged a tour of the veterans' memorial at Angel Fire. This is an awesome place, and should be seen by everyone. Dick Dickerson, a veteran volunteer, was our host, and his detailed explanations added a lot to the solemn beauty of this lovely memorial. Don't miss it! Friday's progressive dinner was a hoot, as always, and we were introduced to Annie Jaques new granddaughter! Tim and Rose Alton's daughters added lots of hilarity to the evening. Another great time with great cars and great friends.

OCTOBER MEETING

The October meeting of the New Mexico Chapter, NCRS will be Saturday, October 11th. This is our fall cleanup of old US Highway 66. We will meet at 8:30 AM at the grant headquarters just East of Carnuel. You all know the drill; lets show up and get 'er done. Thanks.

ALSO OCTOBER

October the 23rd through 25th the Lone Star Regional will be held in Frisco, Texas. Hopefully those who are going have everything lined up. A guaranteed good time, unless you're trying to PV two cars. Lots of luck, Jack!

NOVEMBER

The November meeting will be a judging school at Rick Jones' shop on Saturday the 8th at 8:30 AM. Rick's shop is at the corner of Third Street and Constitution, NW. Rick will also preside at the meeting. Last chance this year to add to your judging points!!

DECEMBER

Curt and Sandy Richter have offered again to host the December meeting and the holiday party. This will be on Saturday, the 13th. Drag out those white elephants you've been wanting to get rid of. The chapter will provide the main course items. A reminder; according to chapter policy you'll have to bring your own adult beverages.

NOMINATIONS

Nominations for next year's chapter officers took place at the September meeting. Jack Barnett declined to continue as Secretary, and Phil Dankworth accepted the nomination for the position. With that change the existing slate of officers was nominated for another year. A unanimous voted confirmed the chapter officers for 2015.
